EXPERIENCE

Ondi Timoner - Rebel Rabbi: New York— Field Producer/Editor

January 2020 - November 2020

I've been working with two-time Sundance winner Ondi Timoner just under a year now. I am tasked with field producer and editor on this film. After many editing hours, I helped discover the connection to shame, early childhood, and the Rabbi's work. In addition to editing work, I help conduct interviews, scheduled shoots, and coordinate a small shooting crew. I have shot a majority of the film's material as well.

Great Big Story: Des Moines, Iowa - Producer

September 2019

I shot and directed the Des Moines, Iowa section of the, The Best Home-Cooked Meals From Grandma video. It has gained over 120k views on just their Youtube channel. I interviewed both the grandmother and grandson as they spoke about the importance of cooking and family.

350.org: New York - Climate Strike - Producer/Editor

September 2019

I was commissioned by 350.org and Climate Nexus to interview some of the leading youth activists against climate change. After this, I edited the interviews down and created a short campaign before the climate strike.

Google News Initiative: New York - Assistant Editor

March 2019

Working with Snowdays studio I assistant edited a piece in collaboration with Google. I listened through interviews, using transcriptions to pull quotes as well as pulling things I found important.
